

Deborah U. Ettinger

Senior Counsel
dettinger@lozanosmith.com

140 Second Street, Suite 250
Petaluma, CA 94952
T 707.762.1005 | F 707.762.1091

Education

J.D., Whittier Law School
B.A., University of California, Irvine

Practice Areas

Special Education
Students
Litigation

Bar Admission

California, 2000

Overview

Deborah U. Ettinger is Senior Counsel in Lozano Smith's Petaluma Office. Ms. Ettinger specializes in the Special Education, Students and Litigation aspects of education law. For the past decade, she has counseled school districts on all matters relating to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, California special education laws and Section 504. Ms. Ettinger has also successfully represented school districts in administrative hearings as well as appeals in federal court.

Presenter Experience

Ms. Ettinger frequently conducts trainings for school districts on a variety of topics from the individualized education process to compliance with Section 504. Ms. Ettinger also conducts presentations at statewide education associations.

Education

Ms. Ettinger received her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from Whittier Law School and was a member of the Whittier Law Review. Her article "The Tadic War Crimes Trial: The First Criminal Conviction Since Nuremberg Exposes the Need for a Permanent War Crimes Tribunal" was published in the Whittier Law Review. She earned her Bachelor of Arts from University of California, Irvine.