

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 18, 2011

Contact:
LOZANO SMITH
Client Services
Toll Free: (800) 445-9430

LOZANO SMITH ATTORNEY QUOTED IN JULY 2011 ISSUE OF LRP PUBLICATIONS

Kinna P. Crocker, Attorney at Law in Lozano Smith's Santa Rosa Office, was quoted in the July 2011 issue of the LRP Publication The School Discipline Advisor, in an article entitled, "Avoid missteps that complicate suspending, expelling students".

The article discussed issues related to disciplining a student to the point of expulsion or suspension, and how the school and district must always be aware of current policy for such matters.

The article's key points were:

- Train principals, superintendents on ins and outs of discipline process.
- Avoid missteps that can complicate suspensions, expulsions.
- Be prepared to defend disciplinary recommendations in court.

Kinna Crocker was quoted in the article stating that "When misconduct occurs off school grounds or at a student's home, and dependent upon the impact that misconduct has upon school, a district's jurisdiction over the discipline of such misconduct can be affected". Crocker continued to say that school and district officials should "establish clear written policy and provide guidance regarding the discipline process,"

LRP Publications publishes two industry-leading magazines, Human Resource Executive and Risk & Insurance, as well as hundreds of newsletters, books, videos and case reports in the fields of human resources, federal employment, workers' compensation, disability, and education and administration law.

###