Attorney Kevin Mills Joins Lozano Smith

Walnut Creek, CA (March 3, 2010) – Noted higher education attorney Kevin Mills has joined the Lozano Smith law firm as a shareholder in its Walnut Creek office. Most recently, Kevin was a partner with the San Francisco law firm of Burgess, Mills & Ring. His practice is focused on providing general counsel and litigation services to private and public universities operating in California. Kevin also represents private and non-profit corporations, as well as individuals, in business advising, litigation, and employment matters.

Kevin feels that joining a law firm with a significant presence in the higher education arena is a good fit with his experience and beneficial for his clients. “Lozano Smith is the premier education law firm in California. The lawyers here provide a great depth of legal expertise across the broad spectrum of issues that face institutions of higher education today. This means efficient and comprehensive legal advice on compliance, transactions and litigation.”

Lozano Smith Managing Shareholder Greg Wedner is enthusiastic about having Kevin in the firm. “... [Kevin’s] talents dovetail nicely with our mix of legal expertise. In addition to being an accomplished attorney, he is a great guy who we will enjoy working with.”
