

Lindsey F. Zwicker

Associate

Los Angeles Office
lzwicker@lozanosmith.com
213.929.1066

Overview

Lindsey F. Zwicker is an Associate in Lozano Smith's Los Angeles office. Ms. Zwicker represents public agencies in numerous areas of law, including real estate, land use, municipal finance and tax law, public contracting, labor and employment law, code enforcement, elections, and regulatory compliance.

Experience

Ms. Zwicker advises local and regional government agencies on a broad range of issues. She routinely drafts and negotiates vendor and real estate contracts and development agreements, and drafts municipal ordinances and resolutions for clients. She provides legal counsel during city council and planning commission meetings, advising clients on adherence to open meeting and conflicts of interest laws.

She has extensive public policy experience, including providing legal assistance to legislators at the local, state, and federal levels, policy makers, activists and public officials, including law enforcement and government attorneys, in developing legislation in a number of areas including public safety and public health.

Education

Ms. Zwicker received her Bachelors of Arts from the University of California, Santa Barbara. She was awarded her Juris Doctor and Master of Public Policy degrees from the University of California, Los Angeles Schools of Law and Public Affairs. While in law school, she was the Editor-in-Chief of the UCLA Women's Law Journal.

Practices

Facilities & Business
Labor & Employment
Municipal

Education

J.D./M.P.P., University of California, Los Angeles
School of Law and School of Public Affairs
B.A., University of California, Santa Barbara

Admissions

California