

Quentin Cedar

Senior Counsel

Fresno Office
qcedar@lozanosmith.com
559.431.5600

Overview

Quentin Cedar is Senior Counsel in Lozano Smith's Fresno Office. Mr. Cedar's practice covers an extensive range of business litigation.

Experience

Mr. Cedar's proficiency in litigation is evident through representation at every stage of legal proceedings, from conducting and defending depositions to attending mediations, bench trials, and handling appeals. Earlier roles at the United States Attorney's Office and the United States District Court provided invaluable experience in prosecution, legal research, and writing.

Education

Mr. Cedar earned a Juris Doctorate from San Joaquin College of Law in Clovis, California, following a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Economics and Policy from the University of California, Berkeley. His academic journey was marked by accolades such as the American Board of Trial Advocates Memorial Scholarship, recognition as a semi-finalist in the George A. Hopper Moot Court Competition, and multiple Witkin Awards for Academic Excellence in various legal disciplines.

Practices
Litigation

Education
J.D., San Joaquin College of Law, Clovis
B.S., University of California, Berkeley

Admissions
California