

Scarlett M. Loving

Associate

Sacramento Office
sloving@lozanosmith.com
916.329.7433

Overview

Scarlett M. Loving is an Associate in Lozano Smith's Sacramento Office. Ms. Loving's practice is primarily focused on assisting school district clients through a variety of labor and employment and litigation matters.

Experience

Ms. Loving has experience in various aspects of public agency law. She has extensive experience in preparing pleadings, including arbitration and mediation briefs. She is skilled in summarizing deposition transcripts, drafting letters to opposing counsel, and responding to interrogatories.

Education

Ms. Loving earned her Juris Doctorate from the McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, California. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, graduating with honors from the University of Oregon.

Practices

Labor and Employment
Litigation

Education

J.D., McGeorge School of Law
B.A., University of Oregon

Admissions

California