

Travis E. Cochran

Senior Counsel

Sacramento Office
tcochran@lozanosmith.com
916.329.7433

Overview

Travis E. Cochran is Senior Counsel in Lozano Smith's Sacramento office where he focuses his practice on facilities and business issues for public agencies. Mr. Cochran is the chair of Lozano Smith's Technology & Innovation Practice Group.

Experience

Mr. Cochran advises public agencies on areas such as construction, bidding and alternative delivery methods, technology contracts, CEQA, and energy conservation projects. He also serves as the City Attorney for the City of Greenfield, and provides a full range of legal advice and services in all aspects of municipal law.

Presenter Experience

Mr. Cochran is particularly experienced in presenting topics related to the Public Records Act, Brown Act, compliance, and ethics and conflict of interest issues. He has also presented at various regional association events, such as the California Association of School Business Officials (CASBO) and Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) workshops.

Education

Mr. Cochran earned his J.D. from the University of North Carolina School of Law, where he served as President of the Native American Law Students Association. As a law student, Mr. Cochran also served as a judicial clerk for the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians Tribal Court. He received a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California, Davis.

Practices

Facilities & Business
Litigation
Municipal
Technology & Innovation
Governance

Education

J.D., University of North Carolina School of Law
B.A., University of California, Davis

Admissions

California