

Special Education Attorney

San Diego

Opportunity:

Lozano Smith's San Diego office is seeking an Associate Attorney to join our Special Education Practice. Recognized as a leader in special education law throughout California, we partner with public school districts to navigate complex legal challenges and support student success. We are looking for a bright, motivated attorney with up to 3 years of experience who is interested in building a career in special education law.

The ideal candidate is a creative thinker and compassionate advocate who is passionate about supporting public school districts and helping them navigate the complex requirements of education law. Candidates should possess strong academic credentials, excellent research, writing, and analytical skills, a sense of humor, and a commitment to teamwork.

If you're looking for a challenging and meaningful practice where you can make a difference for California's students, educators, and school communities, we'd love to hear from you.

Qualifications:

- Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree.
- Admission to the State Bar of California and in good standing.
- Strong legal research, writing, and analytical skills.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal abilities.
- Passion for advocating for educational institutions and public agencies

Salary: $125,000 - $225,000/year
