

Labor & Employment Attorney

Monterey Office

Opportunity

Our Monterey office is currently looking an attorney to join our labor and employment and education law practice. Our labor and employment team provides counsel to hundreds of public school districts and other public agencies throughout California. We are seeking candidates who enjoy working on labor and employment matters and have an interest in working for public agencies. Administrative hearing experience is a plus.

We are looking for creative thinkers and compassionate attorneys who are dedicated to helping school districts achieve their mission of educating the next generation.
