Your expertise will directly contribute to protecting students, educators, and educational excellence across the region.

Responsibilities:

- Manage the firm's central calendaring system.
- Calculate and enter critical litigation deadlines with precision accuracy.
- Support attorneys with case management and other paralegal responsibilities.
- Conduct legal research and prepare pleadings.
- Monitor and track cases across multiple jurisdictions and administrative bodies.
- Serve as the procedural knowledge resource for the legal team.

Qualifications:

- Paralegal Certificate required.
- Experience with BEC Legal preferred but not required.
- Comprehensive knowledge of local court rules and procedures.
- Advanced organizational and prioritization skills for high-volume workloads.
- Positive attitude and collaborative approach to complex challenges.

Salary - $75,000 - $100,000/year
