

Education Law – General Counsel/Special Education

Sacramento Office

Opportunity

Our Sacramento office is currently seeking an attorney with 2+ years of experience to join our team to support public school districts and other public agencies throughout California. The ideal candidate will have a strong interest in practicing education law with a focus on administrative hearings, special education, providing general counsel to clients and an openness to developing advocacy skills.

We are looking for bright, motivated, innovative individuals who thrive in a team-oriented environment. All candidates must have excellent academic credentials, strong research, writing, and analysis skills, a sense of humor, and a commitment to learning and teamwork.

Connect

We invite interested applicants to learn more on our website: lozanosmith.com/careers. Please send a cover letter and resume to jobs@lozanosmith.com.

We invite you to check out Lozano Smith, California's premier public agency law firm. You'll find a place where people can thrive and grow both personally and professionally. Along the way, you'll discover a team that is connected and fulfilled by the work they do. Join the journey – it is rewarding each and every day.

Focus on Schools and Communities

Partnering with school districts, community colleges, cities, counties and all types of public agencies is at the core of what we do. Our 30+ year commitment has positively impacted countless students and communities throughout California.
